SCRUM STUDY · PRINT EDITION

Product Owner Course · Exam 3 · Answer key

180 questions · Untimed · Answer key

Match the answer letters to the choices shown on the question paper. Multi-answer items list every correct choice.

Question 1
A A valuable, useful Increment.

Question 2
A Framing and sharing the Product Goal.
C Ordering the items in the Product Backlog.

Question 3
A A single Product Owner should be in place for the product.
B The product must be governed by one unified Product Backlog.

Question 4
B FALSE

Question 5
A The perceived value of the items.
B Interdependencies among the items.
C Dependencies to external products.

Question 6
A The Developers

Question 7
A Customer satisfaction.
C Time to market.

Question 8
D Whatever is necessary to align with the Scrum Team's Definition of Done.

Question 9
B FALSE

Question 10
A The Product Backlog is accessible to all stakeholders.
E The Product Backlog is systematically ordered.

Question 11
D Teach them on their duty to collaborate with other teams, ensuring they create an integrated Increment encompassing the contributions from all teams.

Question 12
B FALSE

Question 13
A Absolutely, every single one of them can be included in the Product Backlog. It acts as the comprehensive list of all tasks related to the product.

Question 14
A Detailing Product Backlog items more when there's a high likelihood they'll be selected in upcoming Sprints.
B Discarding obsolete Product Backlog items that haven't been considered for several Sprints.

Question 15
A TRUE

Question 16
D A Sprint Goal offers a unified direction, encouraging teamwork and dedication.

Question 17
B Scrum does not acknowledge the concept of "Sprint 0".

Question 18
B FALSE

Question 19
A To ensure clear visibility and understanding of what is completed by the end of the Sprint.

Question 20
B Every Scrum Team is accountable for crafting a feature from its inception to its completion.

Question 21
A Throughout the development process, the Scrum Team collaboratively breaks down and clarifies Product Backlog items for better clarity and readiness.
B If, during the ongoing Sprint, the Scrum Team finds they haven't adequately defined certain items from previous Sprints, they should refine them.

Question 22
A Adjust the Product Backlog items selected or modify their acceptance criteria.
D The Developers inform the Scrum Team about the potential overload, initiate the Sprint, and consistently review the progress.

Question 23
E The Product Owner enters Sprint Planning with a desired business outcome and collaboratively works with the Developers to devise the Sprint Goal.

Question 24
C Engaging actively as a member of the Scrum Team.

Question 25
A Advise the Product Owner on addressing this issue with the Developers.
D Recommend the Product Owner to detail quality criteria in the Product Backlog and convey the stakeholer's feedback to the Developers.

Question 26
B Sufficiently to ensure the outcome aligns with the envisioned product value.

Question 27
B FALSE

Question 28
A TRUE

Question 29
B In Scrum, each element has a defined intention, and its correct application is crucial for effective Scrum practice.
D Scrum offers a structure to facilitate and maintain intricate products.
E Empiricism and lean thinking form the foundational principles of Scrum.

Question 30
E All mentioned points.

Question 31
B FALSE

Question 32
B The Scrum Team.

Question 33
A Discuss with the Developers if these requirements can be incorporated without compromising the existing Sprint Goal.
D Incorporate these requirements into the Product Backlog for future consideration.

Question 34
A Transform items from the Product Backlog into a valuable, usable Increment.

Question 35
D After the Sprint Retrospective is over.

Question 36
A Managed by the Product Owner.
B A dynamic list of items that need to be done for the Product.
E Ordered based on business value, priority, dependencies, and risk.

Question 37
B FALSE

Question 38
C The Scrum Team has the option to include these enhancements in the forthcoming Sprint's Backlog.

Question 39
B The time and place for this event are consistent.
D The key objective is to review progress towards the Sprint Goal and make necessary changes to the Sprint Backlog.

Question 40
A The Product Backlog is consistently refined and updated based on the latest understanding.

Question 41
B Frequently

Question 42
B Tell the Product Owner to collaborate with the Developers to determine which tasks are quickest from a technical perspective.

Question 43
A It allows for clearer evaluation of progress during the Sprint Review.
B The Scrum Team remains aligned, making decisions in sync with the Product Goal.
D The overarching direction is established, preventing Sprints from appearing as separate entities.

Question 44
B To assess the Increment in collaboration with stakeholders and gather insights on future actions.

Question 45
B Methodologies in use.

Question 46
B FALSE

Question 47
A Collaborate with the Developers to evaluate and break down the tasks.

Question 48
D 10 or fewer.

Question 49
B Demonstrate that the further out a project is forecasted, the more uncertain it becomes.

Question 50
B FALSE

Question 51
A TRUE

Question 52
D In Scrum, the plan is the Product Backlog, refined whenever new data or insights arise.

Question 53
B FALSE

Question 54
B After the conclusion of the Sprint Retrospective.
D After the Sprint’s timebox elapses.

Question 55
B FALSE

Question 56
B FALSE

Question 57
B FALSE

Question 58
B It represents the Developers' plan for the Sprint.

Question 59
C The product showcased during the Sprint Review deviates from her expectations.

Question 60
B FALSE

Question 61
D The Developers after discussing specifics with the Product Owner

Question 62
A Regularly updating stakeholders and users on the product's progression and approaches.
C Collaborating with users and stakeholders to pinpoint high-priority product needs.

Question 63
A It can influence the product’s total cost of ownership.
D To gain transparency into the product's status after every Sprint.

Question 64
D Zero. A new Sprint starts immediately following the end of the previous Sprint.

Question 65
A The Scrum Team can always identify who orders the Product Backlog.
B It fosters seamless communication and swift choices.
D Accountability for the product's final value is unmistakably with one individual.

Question 66
A Educate the team about the significance of the Daily Scrum for daily coordination and planning.
C Understand the Developers' reasoning and assist them in enhancing the Daily Scrum's benefits.

Question 67
A Feedback directly from the users.
B The ease and speed with which users can adopt and utilize the product.
C Determining the extent of the product features that are actively being employed by users.

Question 68
B How can we guarantee that every team possesses the necessary skill sets?

Question 69
B Structuring the work essential for accomplishing the Sprint Goal.
C Crafting a plan for the Sprint, known as the Sprint Backlog.

Question 70
A TRUE

Question 71
C The Developers may struggle to commit to a confident Sprint Goal due to unclear requirements.

Question 72
A Collaborate with the Developers to adjust the scope while ensuring the Sprint Goal is intact.

Question 73
A Collaborating with the Scrum Team to refine the Product Backlog.
E Engaging with stakeholders, end-users, and customers.

Question 74
A Its influence on the overall cost.
D Its contribution to the organization’s revenue.
F Its effect on user satisfaction.

Question 75
D The Scrum Team.

Question 76
A TRUE

Question 77
A Ensure transparency by offering access to the Product Backlog and its current state.
E Engage in a conversation with the Project Manager about the team's current challenges and Sprint projections.

Question 78
D Collaborate with the Product Owner immediately to reconsider and possibly adjust the scope for the current Sprint.

Question 79
C The Scrum Team

Question 80
B FALSE

Question 81
A TRUE

Question 82
B FALSE

Question 83
A TRUE

Question 84
B FALSE

Question 85
A TRUE

Question 86
B FALSE

Question 87
A TRUE

Question 88
B FALSE

Question 89
A TRUE

Question 90
B FALSE

Question 91
A TRUE

Question 92
B FALSE

Question 93
A TRUE

Question 94
B FALSE

Question 95
A TRUE

Question 96
B FALSE

Question 97
A TRUE

Question 98
B FALSE

Question 99
A TRUE

Question 100
C The Scrum Team

Question 101
B FALSE

Question 102
D I, II, III and IV

Question 103
C II, III, IV and V

Question 104
B FALSE

Question 105
A TRUE

Question 106
B FALSE

Question 107
A TRUE

Question 108
D An ongoing process in which the Product Owner and the Developers collaborate

Question 109
A TRUE

Question 110
B To inspect the outcome of the Sprint and determine future adaptations

Question 111
A Hardening Sprints

Question 112
B FALSE

Question 113
C The Product Owner

Question 114
A TRUE

Question 115
C The Product Owner

Question 116
D I and II

Question 117
A TRUE

Question 118
D The Product Backlog

Question 119
B FALSE

Question 120
B FALSE

Question 121
A TRUE

Question 122
D Current Value, Unrealized Value, Time to Market, and Ability to Innovate

Question 123
A The present state of value being delivered

Question 124
D Customer or User satisfaction Gap, Market Share, and Desired Customer Experience or satisfaction

Question 125
C By measuring the organization's ability to deliver value quickly to customers

Question 126
B Innovation Rate, Technical Debt, and Production Incident Count

Question 127
A TRUE

Question 128
C People who have all the skills needed to create a product Increment

Question 129
A It is the second to last event of the Sprint
D Stakeholders participate

Question 130
A 10 or less

Question 131
B FALSE

Question 132
B At the end of every Sprint

Question 133
C Sprint Backlog

Question 134
C Both of the above

Question 135
B Product Owner

Question 136
A The scope can be revised based on new insights

Question 137
A Cooperate on what to do next

Question 138
A Work closely with the Developers to explain in more depth

Question 139
C They are not actively involved

Question 140
A Through the Product Backlog
C Through the Sprint Review
D Through ad-hoc interactions with the rest of the Scrum Team

Question 141
C Often enough to reduce the risk that the product is not useful

Question 142
B By any method they choose

Question 143
C Typically, they are small enough so that they can be Done within a Sprint

Question 144
D As long as the Product Owner sees the need

Question 145
B It adapts to reflect the changes.

Question 146
B FALSE

Question 147
A Collaborate with the Developers to adapt the planned scope

Question 148
B FALSE

Question 149
B FALSE

Question 150
B FALSE

Question 151
B FALSE

Question 152
A Sprint Planning
C Sprint Review
D Sprint Retrospective

Question 153
A It is releasable

Question 154
A The Product Backlog can be updated at any time

Question 155
A TRUE

Question 156
A TRUE

Question 157
A TRUE

Question 158
B FALSE

Question 159
A Attend the Daily Scrum and listen attentively.
D Examine the Sprint Backlog.

Question 160
B FALSE

Question 161
A Increments are more likely to be releasable.
B Enhanced visibility into the state of the Increment.
D Increments are more likely to be usable.

Question 162
C 8 hours

Question 163
A At a minimum, create enough items to enable the Developers to predict their capacity and establish an initial plan for the Sprint. Additional planning can occur within the Sprint.

Question 164
C Developers

Question 165
B By enhancing customer satisfaction
C Via regular releases that provide value

Question 166
A TRUE

Question 167
D I, II and III

Question 168
B FALSE

Question 169
A TRUE

Question 170
A TRUE

Question 171
B FALSE

Question 172
B FALSE

Question 173
B FALSE

Question 174
B FALSE

Question 175
A TRUE

Question 176
B FALSE

Question 177
C A framework for organizations to improve their ability to deliver value in an uncertain world, seeking a path toward strategic goals

Question 178
A TRUE

Question 179
A Accept that the Developers' forecast was incorrect. Help them move forward to forecast with greater accuracy.

Question 180
E None of these are mandated.