SCRUM STUDY · PRINT EDITION

Product Owner Course · Exam 4 · Answer key

180 questions · Untimed · Answer key

Match the answer letters to the choices shown on the question paper. Multi-answer items list every correct choice.

Question 1
A Create Product Backlog items for each security issue.
C Include security concerns in the Definition of Done.

Question 2
E The Product Owner should participate in Sprint Planning with a business goal in mind and collaborate with the Scrum Team to formulate the Sprint Goal.

Question 3
B Refines the Product Backlog in collaboration with the Scrum Team
E Collaborates with stakeholders, users, customers, and product managers

Question 4
B FALSE

Question 5
C Immediately after they are recognized.

Question 6
A All Sprints must be a month or shorter
C For a development effort, Sprints should consistently be the same length

Question 7
C Request Developers to self-manage into teams.

Question 8
B FALSE

Question 9
A Product Backlog, Sprint Backlog, Increment

Question 10
A TRUE

Question 11
B Accountability for the product's success is clear.
D Facilitates rapid decision-making and effective communication.
E Developers know who is ultimately accountable for ordering the Product Backlog.

Question 12
B FALSE

Question 13
B FALSE

Question 14
E Adjust the selected Product Backlog items
F The Developers ensure that the Product Owner is informed, initiates the Sprint, and monitors progress

Question 15
A Small enough to be delivered in a single Sprint.

Question 16
C Coach them it's their duty to cooperate with other teams to deliver an Integrated Increment.

Question 17
B They are refined and comprehended by both the Product Owner and the Developers, allowing them to forecast which items can be accomplished to reach the Sprint Goal.

Question 18
A During the Sprint Retrospective

Question 19
A Dependencies with other products
B The value of the Product Backlog items
E Dependencies between Product Backlog items

Question 20
C The Product Owner

Question 21
D Writing user stories

Question 22
B Yes, they should all be part of the Product Backlog. The Product Backlog is the sole source of work done by the Scrum Team.

Question 23
B The team's collaboration and interaction.
C Identifying process improvements for the upcoming Sprint with high priority.

Question 24
D Guide the Product Owner on how to discuss this concern with the Developers
G Coach the Product Owner on how to include performance in the Product Backlog and convey the stakeholder's worries to the Developers

Question 25
B Scrum Master
C Developers
E Product Owner

Question 26
D By causing the removal of impediments that restrict the Scrum Team's productivity.
E By supporting decision-making

Question 27
A Sprint Retrospective
F Sprint Review
G Daily Scrum

Question 28
B FALSE

Question 29
B FALSE

Question 30
B FALSE

Question 31
B FALSE

Question 32
B FALSE

Question 33
E Tools used by Developers

Question 34
A It facilitates transparency in the work reviewed during the Sprint Review
D It establishes the criteria for an Increment to be considered ready for release

Question 35
B The identification of new impediments hindering the chances of achieving the Sprint Goal.
E A collective understanding of the most crucial tasks to be done next to make the optimal progress toward the Sprint Goal.

Question 36
A The Product Owner is accountable for managing it
E A list of work items for the product
F Ordered based on risk, priority, dependencies, and value

Question 37
E The Developers

Question 38
C The Developers encounter issues while forecasting work for the Sprint.

Question 39
E At a minimum, by the conclusion of every Sprint

Question 40
D As early in the Sprint as possible, collaborate with the Product Owner to reduce some work or Product Backlog items.

Question 41
C Collaborating with customers and stakeholders to pinpoint the most critical product needs.
D Transparently conveying project or release status and strategies to customers and stakeholders.

Question 42
A Each Scrum Team delivers functionality from start to finish across all technical layers.

Question 43
A Construct at least one functional piece
C Develop an Increment.

Question 44
A TRUE

Question 45
A The Product Backlog is consistently updated with the latest insights.
C The size of the highest order Product Backlog items is no larger than a Sprint.

Question 46
A Engage in a dialogue with the project manager, sharing the current impediments and Sprint forecast.
E Enhance transparency by sharing the Product Backlog and assuring that the project manager has access.

Question 47
C The utilization rate of the product's features.
D The ease with which the product can be adopted and utilized by its end-users.
E Immediate feedback from customers.

Question 48
A The end-users of the product.

Question 49
D Visualizing the increasing uncertainty in a forecast as the time frame extends

Question 50
A The product should have a single Product Backlog.
D There should be a single Product Owner.

Question 51
A Arranging the tasks necessary to attain the Sprint Goal
E Settling conflicts within the team

Question 52
A It being a lightweight framework
C Developers get to decide on the tasks for a Sprint
D It advocates for the removal of Developer titles

Question 53
B FALSE

Question 54
B Results of the Sprint

Question 55
E All of the above

Question 56
B FALSE

Question 57
A TRUE

Question 58
B FALSE

Question 59
A 1 month

Question 60
A 4 hours for a Sprint of one month

Question 61
A In the Sprint Planning event

Question 62
A Prioritize the list and address them in a systematic order
B Engage in discussions about the impediments with the Developers

Question 63
B The contribution to the company's revenue
C The influence on expenditures
F The effect on customer satisfaction

Question 64
C The Developers gain more focus with a shared and specific goal.

Question 65
B What tasks did I accomplish yesterday that aided the team in achieving the Sprint Goal?
C Do I foresee any impediments that could prevent me or the team from achieving the Sprint Goal?
E What actions will I undertake today to assist the team in reaching the Sprint Goal?

Question 66
B FALSE

Question 67
D He/she doesn't need to be there; their main responsibility is to ensure that the Developers conduct a Daily Scrum

Question 68
B To inspect the Increment with stakeholders and gather feedback for future steps.

Question 69
B Collaborate with the Developers to modify the selected Product Backlog items to meet the Sprint Goal

Question 70
B The Product Backlog is transparent to all parties involved
C The Product Backlog is ordered

Question 71
A TRUE

Question 72
A The Product Owner

Question 73
B FALSE

Question 74
A When the Sprint Goal is no longer relevant

Question 75
B FALSE

Question 76
C The Product Owner and the Developers should refine it in the 1-2 Sprints leading up to the current Sprint.
D The Product Owner and the Developers should refine it in the ongoing Sprint if they haven't had the opportunity in the previous Sprints.

Question 77
C The Developers

Question 78
D As needed by the Developers.

Question 79
D The Product Backlog in Scrum serves as the plan. It undergoes revision as new data and insights surface.

Question 80
B The Scrum Team possesses all the competencies required to deliver value in each Sprint.

Question 81
B Time to market
E User satisfaction

Question 82
A TRUE

Question 83
E All the above

Question 84
A Product Owner, Developers, Scrum Master

Question 85
A Product Owner
B Developers
C Scrum Master

Question 86
B 4 hours

Question 87
A The total cost of ownership of the product
B Customer satisfaction with the product
E The ease of adoption of new releases by customers

Question 88
B Creating an Increment

Question 89
A As much as needed to maximize the value delivered by the Scrum Team

Question 90
B When it conforms with the Definition of Done

Question 91
C As needed

Question 92
E None of these events

Question 93
B Scrum is a framework that enables people, teams and organizations to create value through adaptive solutions for complex challenges.
D Scrum is founded on empiricism and lean thinking

Question 94
B Velocity
C Sprint Burndown

Question 95
A The cost of the release
B The value that may be generated by the release
C The uncertainty of the release

Question 96
B A cross-functional team that can deliver value without depending on others
C A self-managing team that can manage its own work towards a Product Goal

Question 97
B Enhancing the Definition of Done

Question 98
C The Definition of Done

Question 99
B It is the Developers plan for the Sprint

Question 100
A Owner

Question 101
A The Scrum Team

Question 102
A The Product Backlog and the Sprint Backlog

Question 103
B Sprint Retrospective

Question 104
B Scrum suits best when the requirements are static
D Scrum will fix all your issues

Question 105
A No one

Question 106
B Scrum Master
C Developers
E Product Owner

Question 107
A Uncertain

Question 108
C The Sprint Goal provides guidance to the team on the purpose of the Sprint Increment.

Question 109
A TRUE

Question 110
B FALSE

Question 111
A The Increment would undergo more comprehensive validation
B Enhanced clarity regarding the quality of the Increments

Question 112
A Only the Product Owner can cancel a Sprint; the Scrum Master should facilitate discussion to prevent conflict escalation.

Question 113
B FALSE

Question 114
D Ensure the dependency is visible in the Product Backlog and provide enough independent items for the next Sprint.

Question 115
D No work remains based on the Definition of Done.

Question 116
B By the end of each Sprint, before the Sprint Review

Question 117
A The Scrum Master creates it

Question 118
A TRUE

Question 119
A TRUE

Question 120
A Inspect and adapt in the Sprint Review and Sprint Retrospective

Question 121
A TRUE

Question 122
A TRUE

Question 123
A TRUE

Question 124
A Splitting and further clarifying Product Backlog items

Question 125
B FALSE

Question 126
C The Scrum Team

Question 127
A 3 hours

Question 128
A The Scrum Team & stakeholders

Question 129
A TRUE

Question 130
B FALSE

Question 131
A TRUE

Question 132
C The Product Owner

Question 133
A TRUE

Question 134
B FALSE

Question 135
B FALSE

Question 136
A TRUE

Question 137
A TRUE

Question 138
D The Scrum Team

Question 139
A TRUE

Question 140
B FALSE

Question 141
B FALSE

Question 142
A The rest of the Scrum Team and the organization

Question 143
A TRUE

Question 144
A Minimize the cost of change, as change is inevitable

Question 145
A TRUE

Question 146
B FALSE

Question 147
B FALSE

Question 148
A To maximize the value of the product

Question 149
B FALSE

Question 150
A An individual

Question 151
B FALSE

Question 152
A Increased collaboration

Question 153
A TRUE

Question 154
B FALSE

Question 155
A A Done Increment at the end of each Sprint

Question 156
A Valuable work

Question 157
A The Developers

Question 158
A 1 month

Question 159
A Product Backlog, Sprint Backlog, Increment

Question 160
A A problem finding framework

Question 161
A Scrum Master

Question 162
B Description, order, and size.

Question 163
C The Product Owner

Question 164
B To enhance transparency and focus

Question 165
A The Product Backlog contains the Product Goal. The Sprint Backlog contains the Sprint Goal. The Increment adheres to the Definition of Done.

Question 166
A TRUE

Question 167
A The Scrum Team

Question 168
B FALSE

Question 169
A TRUE

Question 170
A TRUE

Question 171
C As much as the Product Owner and Developers agree is necessary to create enough ready Product Backlog Items

Question 172
A Product Owner
B Scrum Master
C Developers

Question 173
D A continuous process involving collaboration between the Product Owner and Developers

Question 174
B FALSE

Question 175
A TRUE

Question 176
A TRUE

Question 177
A TRUE

Question 178
A Defining and sharing the Product Goal clearly
B Generating and transparently presenting Product Backlog items
C Ordering and prioritizing Product Backlog items

Question 179
B The Product Backlog

Question 180
A To ensure complete transparency regarding the work completed at the end of each Sprint
B Because the Definition of Done can influence the product's total cost of ownership