SCRUM STUDY · PRINT EDITION

Product Owner Course · Exam 5 · Answer key

180 questions · Untimed · Answer key

Question 1
A Establishing a vision for the product.

Question 2
C Delivering valuable and usable product Increments.

Question 3
C A process control type based on the three pillars of transparency, inspection, and adaptation.

Question 4
B FALSE

Question 5
B Ordering Product Backlog items.

Question 6
A TRUE

Question 7
C The Product Owner and Scrum Master are peers with different responsibilities.

Question 8
A Product Owner.

Question 9
B By seeking and incorporating stakeholder feedback into the Product Backlog.

Question 10
A TRUE

Question 11
A It focuses on maximizing the delivery of business value.
C It encourages regular collaboration with customers and stakeholders.

Question 12
A Delivering high-quality, valuable features.
C Ensuring quick delivery of new product features.

Question 13
D The product vision sets direction, aligns the Scrum Team efforts, guides decision-making, and helps order the Product Backlog.

Question 14
B A release can produce a negative value.
C Value is only realized when a product is released.

Question 15
A Accept the idea since the importance of the Sprint Goal will increase, helping the Developers maintain their focus while being capable of handling urgent work.

Question 16
A Managing the Product Backlog.
C Participating in Sprint Reviews.
D Interacting closely with the Developers throughout the Sprint.

Question 17
B Assuming all the ideas are hypotheses until they are tested against the marketplace.
C The more feedback received from stakeholders, the more they become accountable for the product.

Question 18
A Any method you find useful.

Question 19
A Gathering and incorporating feedback into the Product Backlog.
B Conducting regular stakeholder meetings to discuss progress.
D Regularly communicating progress updates and changes to stakeholders.

Question 20
B FALSE

Question 21
A TRUE

Question 22
A TRUE

Question 23
B FALSE

Question 24
B FALSE

Question 25
A TRUE

Question 26
B FALSE

Question 27
B FALSE

Question 28
B FALSE

Question 29
B Inspections and Adaptation

Question 30
C It allows for the delivery of value to customers with each product Increment.

Question 31
C Items that deliver the most value.

Question 32
C The Product Owner

Question 33
A Total expenses and costs for the product
B Customer satisfaction
C Employee satisfaction
D Lead Time
G Technical Debt

Question 34
A Managing the budget.
C Defining the product vision.

Question 35
B Each item must be detailed as user stories.
C Any item can only be considered for a Sprint if it meets the Definition of Ready.
D It shouldn’t include defects.

Question 36
A Regularly communicate progress updates.
B Seek and incorporate stakeholder feedback.
D Manage stakeholder expectations effectively.

Question 37
B FALSE

Question 38
B FALSE

Question 39
A TRUE

Question 40
B FALSE

Question 41
B To inspect the outcome of the Sprint and adapt the Product Backlog.

Question 42
B You can release multiple times within a Sprint.

Question 43
C Delivering the highest value features as early as possible.

Question 44
B The Product Owner.

Question 45
B One month.

Question 46
F All of the above

Question 47
A By prioritizing the items based on their value, risk, and dependencies
B By ensuring the items are clear and transparent.
D By making sure the Developers understand the items.

Question 48
B FALSE

Question 49
B FALSE

Question 50
C To create a valuable, useful Increment each Sprint

Question 51
D Sprint Retrospective

Question 52
A Adaptation, Inspection, and Transparency

Question 53
C Sprint, Sprint Planning, Daily Scrum, Sprint Review, and Sprint Retrospective

Question 54
A The cost of releasing
B Customer absorption
C The potential benefits from the release
D The risks of releasing

Question 55
A Regularly communicating about product progress and updates
B Engaging stakeholders in Product Backlog refinement sessions
D Aligning Product Backlog items with stakeholder needs and organization goals

Question 56
B FALSE

Question 57
B FALSE

Question 58
A The quality of the product.

Question 59
B FALSE

Question 60
A Product Backlog, Sprint Backlog, and Increment.

Question 61
A Can delegate the ordering of the Product Backlog to the Developers.
B Actively asks for stakeholder input for the Product Backlog.

Question 62
A Attending the Daily Scrum as a listener.
D Inspecting the Sprint Backlog.

Question 63
B FALSE

Question 64
B FALSE

Question 65
B Adaptive, iterative, and collaborative planning

Question 66
B It shows the remaining work over time

Question 67
C It happens daily

Question 68
A Product Owner.
B Scrum Master
C Developers

Question 69
A Maximizing the value of the work done by the Scrum Team
B Managing the Product Backlog
D Collaborating with stakeholders

Question 70
B FALSE

Question 71
A TRUE

Question 72
C The item meets the Definition of Done.

Question 73
D Product Owner

Question 74
F No one

Question 75
A Product Backlog and Increments

Question 76
A Daily Scrum
B Sprint Review
C Having a Definition of Done
D Keeping the Product Backlog visible and updated

Question 77
B FALSE

Question 78
A TRUE

Question 79
A TRUE

Question 80
C They should renegotiate the Sprint scope with the Product Owner.

Question 81
A Stakeholder feedback
B Product quality
C Team morale
D Product adoption

Question 82
A TRUE

Question 83
A Output

Question 84
D Scrum Team

Question 85
A TRUE

Question 86
A A self-managing group of professionals who collaborate to deliver a valuable product

Question 87
A They have all the skills necessary to create value each Sprint

Question 88
A The value of the Sprint Goal increases. It can help the Developers stay focused

Question 89
B FALSE

Question 90
A TRUE

Question 91
B FALSE

Question 92
A TRUE

Question 93
A TRUE

Question 94
C Key Value Area

Question 95
C The potential value that could be realized if the organization met the needs of all potential customers or users

Question 96
A TRUE

Question 97
A The Scrum Team.

Question 98
C More vague and uncertain than the items in the Sprint Backlog.

Question 99
E What is the value and objective of the Sprint, what Product Backlog items can be delivered, and what is the strategy for delivering them.

Question 100
A Feedback from stakeholders.
B Urgency of delivery
C Benefit of items.
D Complexity of items.
E Implementation effort.

Question 101
B Refinement

Question 102
A Utilize them to determine which version of a feature to fully implement, based on the value delivered.

Question 103
B Maintaining a consistent Sprint length is advisable.
C Sprints are allowed to last a maximum of one month.

Question 104
B FALSE

Question 105
C During Sprints

Question 106
A TRUE

Question 107
A The Product Owner

Question 108
A The feedback from the stakeholders about the product.

Question 109
A The Product Owner is tasked with actively validating or invalidating assumptions to optimize product value.

Question 110
A In previous Sprints, to get the items ready for upcoming Sprints.
C In the current Sprint, to adjust and refine the items as necessary.

Question 111
B Burndown chart.
D Product roadmap.

Question 112
B The Product Owner aims to optimize the value of the work delivered by the Scrum Team.

Question 113
A Sprint Planning
B Daily Scrum
C Sprint Review
D Sprint Retrospective

Question 114
A It facilitates a shared comprehension of the item's intended functionality.

Question 115
A Sprints are no longer than one month.
B It is preferable to have a consistent duration for all Sprints in the product development.

Question 116
D A far-reaching and motivating outlook of the future the product aims to contribute to.

Question 117
D The Sprint Goal

Question 118
B FALSE

Question 119
A The Sprint Goal is no longer valid or important

Question 120
A The Product Owner

Question 121
A Plans for the next Sprint's Sprint Backlog

Question 122
A Sprint Backlog

Question 123
A Every day

Question 124
A TRUE

Question 125
A TRUE

Question 126
A To steer the efforts of the Scrum Team towards the envisioned future.

Question 127
A The Scrum Team may deliver items that are not valuable or relevant.

Question 128
A It allows the Product Owner to assess and validate value.

Question 129
A It offers insights into user needs, guiding adjustments to the Product Backlog.

Question 130
B The Sprint would be planned anyway and more refinement will be done in Sprint Planning or in the Sprint itself.

Question 131
B FALSE

Question 132
B FALSE

Question 133
B FALSE

Question 134
C Incorporating the quality of the product from the beginning

Question 135
A TRUE

Question 136
B To understand the total cost of ownership, as influenced by the ongoing upkeep cost of the product.

Question 137
C It helps the team stay aligned and make smarter choices

Question 138
D The Sprint Backlog comprises the Sprint Goal, selected Product Backlog items, and a plan for delivering the Increment.

Question 139
C One

Question 140
A They won't be included in the Increment inspection during the Sprint Review.
C They will return to the Product Backlog.

Question 141
A Join as a Scrum Team member

Question 142
C The Scrum Team

Question 143
B Optimize the value of the product
D Order the items in the Product Backlog

Question 144
A The Developers

Question 145
A Enhance transparency.
B Establish a common understanding of when work is done.
D Help the Developers to decide how many Product Backlog items to take for the Sprint.

Question 146
D Whenever necessary

Question 147
C Start the first Sprint with a clear Sprint Goal and keep refining the Product Backlog

Question 148
D To plan ways to increase quality and effectiveness

Question 149
A TRUE

Question 150
B FALSE

Question 151
A There is no time gap between Sprints. The next Sprint begins right after the end of the current Sprint.

Question 152
A TRUE

Question 153
A TRUE

Question 154
C Throughout the Sprint

Question 155
B To establish clear accountability for maximizing product value and managing the Product Backlog effectively.

Question 156
C The Product Backlog

Question 157
C Value points enhance transparency about the value of Product Backlog items.

Question 158
B Coach the Product Owner on how to order and refine the Product Backlog

Question 159
A It lasts for 15 minutes.
B It is specifically for the Developers.

Question 160
D The Developers

Question 161
C The Developers themselves

Question 162
A To adapt to changes in the market, technology, and customer needs.

Question 163
A Attending as a member of the Scrum Team.

Question 164
C By the end of each Sprint

Question 165
A No. He/She can choose to be there or not.

Question 166
A To confirm when a Product Backlog item is completed and working as expected.

Question 167
A Adjust, remove, or change some of the Product Backlog items in the Sprint Backlog.
B Inform the Product Owner about the situation, start the Sprint and track the progress.

Question 168
A Guidance to the Scrum Team on why it is building the increment.

Question 169
D The Developers

Question 170
C An emergent, ordered list of what is needed to improve the product.

Question 171
A It helps to reduce work-in-progress

Question 172
D Collaborate with the Product Owner to resolve the issue.

Question 173
A The Developers

Question 174
B FALSE

Question 175
B FALSE

Question 176
B FALSE

Question 177
C Start the first Sprint with a clear Sprint Goal and keep working on the Product Backlog

Question 178
D At any time by the Product Owner

Question 179
C It is a chance for inspection and adaptation of the Scrum Team's process
D It occurs after the Sprint Review

Question 180
B It will be broken down into smaller tasks to be completed within a Sprint